

Hallingbury Morley Events

In Tudor times Great and Little Hallingbury were known as Hallingbury Morley, after the local Lords.

Tudor Weekend

1st / 2nd October 2022

St Giles' Church, Great Hallingbury

The marriage of Jane Parker and George Boleyn took place in St Giles' Church

Hear about Jane Boleyn and her family from her biographer

Tudor Themed Fete

around the church both Saturday and Sunday including historical displays, stalls and Hadham Brewery real ale (to celebrate the Tudor annual drinking to raise funds), cream teas and

Flower Festival

Enjoy an evening of Tudor music at our concert in St Giles'

Worship with the 1549 prayer book at Sunday choral matins in St Giles' led by the Bishop of Chelmsford

Tudor Weekend

1st / 2nd October 2022

Jane Boleyn, The Infamous Lady Rochford

Lecture by author, Julia Fox, plus Philip Hays on Jane's father, Baron Morley followed by a book signing by Julia Fox
Interval refreshments included

St Giles' Church, Saturday, 1st October, 10 am
Tickets £12.50

Tudor themed Fete and Flower Festival
St Giles' Church and Churchyard
Saturday and Sunday 1st / 2nd October
1 pm - 5 pm
Free entrance

Concert of Period Music

Choir, singers and musicians.
Interval refreshments included

St Giles' Church, Saturday, 1st October, 7 pm
Tickets £15

Choral Matins from 1549 Prayerbook
St. Giles' Church, Sunday, 2nd October, 11 am Church collection

Tickets for lecture and concert available from hallingburymorley@gmail.com

Visit our Facebook page at Hallingbury Morley Events